Please read the contract in it's entirety before signing.

- Animals adopted from Friends of PC Animals will already be spayed or neutered with the exception of animals under the age of 5 months. Animals who are too young to be spayed or neutered shall be released to new owners with the understanding that the surgery will be performed when the animal is 5 months old.
- Adopters will be required to leave a $75 cash deposit for each young animal adopted that is not spayed or neutered. The deposit will be refunded upon the presentation of a veterinarian's certification of spay or neuter of the adopted animal. If the animal is not spayed or neutered in the required times, as stated below, FoPCA will have the option of reclaiming the animal and keeping the spay/neuter deposit. Proof of spay/neuter MUST be presented on or before _____ or the $75 deposit will be forfeited and the animal may be reclaimed by FoPCA. If the veterinarian feels the animal is unable to be safely altered by the spay/neuter date above the deadline for the refund can be extended by a note from the vet to FoPCA with the new recommended spay/neuter date stated.
- Deposit received? yes _____ no _____ Amount $ _____.
- FoPCA makes no claims, representations or assurance as to this animal's health, behavior or temperament and you as the adopter assume full responsibility, present and future, for any damages to person or property caused by or from ownership of this animal.
- Adopter agrees to not sell or give this animal to any person, company, organization or medical research facility, pound or animal shelter.
- Adopter will give this animal proper food, water and shelter at all times and veterinary care when necessary. It is expected that treatment of the animal will be humane and loving for the rest of its life.
- FoPCA may make follow up visits at mutually convenient times to ascertain the conditions of this agreement are being followed. FoPCA retains the right to repossess the animal within 6 months of this agreement and any litigation costs will be borne by the adopter.
